VIBATH JAYASUNDARA
UNDERGRADUATE AT SLIIT

I'm a second-year undergraduate who is energetic, curious, and eager to learn. I have hands-on experience in web and mobile development through various real-world projects. Currently, I'm building a strong foundation in Data Science with the goal of specializing in this field. I'm passionate about using data to solve problems and looking forward to gaining practical experience through internships and collaborative opportunities.
